Appointment of Non-Executive Director

13th September 2006

Appointment of Non-executive Director

The Sage Group plc has today appointed Ruth Markland as a non-executive director, with immediate effect.

Ruth, aged 53, was a senior partner of the law firm Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer ("Freshfields") until her retirement in 2003 after twenty six years with the firm. For her last eight years with Freshfields, Ruth was Managing Partner for Asia.

Ruth is also a non-executive director of Standard Chartered plc, chairs the Remuneration Committee, and sits as a member of its Audit and Risk Committee and Nominations Committee.

During her career, Ruth has gathered deep operational experience of services businesses in an international context and has participated in board-level strategy development.

In her capacity as non-executive director at Sage, Ruth will sit on the Remuneration Committee, Nominations Committee and Audit Committee.

The Board has also agreed that David Clayton, currently non-executive director at Sage, would take up the position of senior independent non-executive director, to replace Lindsay Bury who retired at the AGM in May 2006.

Sir Julian Horn-Smith, Chairman of Sage, commented:

"We are delighted to welcome Ruth to the Sage Group Board. In addition to a wealth of practical experience in managing and advising businesses, Ruth also brings expertise in working with public company boards, all of which will benefit the Sage Board. We look forward to working with Ruth as we develop our international and services strategies.

"We also welcome David to his new role as senior independent non-executive director. David joined the Board in June 2004 and has been a valuable source of advice in the past two years."

There are no other details requiring disclosure under Listing Rule 9.6.13, relating to further information on this appointment, including other public company directorships.

Sage acquires UK Merchant Services Provider

13 November 2006

Acquisition of UK Merchant Services Provider

Sage acquires UK Merchant Services Provider, Protx, for a consideration of £20

The Sage Group ("Sage"), a leading international supplier of business management software solutions, announces the acquisition of Protx Group Ltd ("Protx") from its shareholders for £20 million, paid in cash. Protx specialises in providing secure, online payment services for small and medium businesses ("SMEs") in the UK.

Protx, which was established in 2001, is a leading independent on-line payment service provider to SMEs in the UK, with a customer base of over 10,000 businesses. The company has gained approval from all major banks to facilitate secure on-line transactions, including Lloyds TSB Cardnet, Bank of Scotland, Barclays Merchant Services, HSBC, Natwest Streamline, American Express, Diners Card, JCB and Euroconex.

Protx offers a cost-effective service for SME merchants, a market that is not well serviced by the larger payment processing companies. It operates in an expanding and highly fragmented market where internet retail sales are forecast to grow at 35% per annum. Over the last year, the business added new customers at a net rate of 350 per month. Revenues are generated from services fees on processed sales transactions over the internet. For the full year ended 31 March 2006, revenue was £1.9 million (2005: £967,000), an increase of 97%. EBITDA was a loss of £20,000 (2005: loss of £537,000). Revenues for the six months to 30 September 2006 were £1.5 million and EBITDA profit of £264,000 (unaudited), demonstrating the improving profitability and high growth trend of the company.

Payment processing services support retail, business to business and e-commerce businesses in processing customer transactions through credit cards, debit cards and cheques. When Sage acquired Verus in the US earlier this year, it was clear that SMEs are increasingly using e-commerce to promote their businesses and there is a growing demand for secure payment processing services, coupled with high levels of support.

The acquisition of Protix is an important step in fulfilling Sage's vision to provide a broader business solution for SMEs, which will eventually enable them to link and integrate merchant services with back-office accounting, stock control and CRM applications.

Paul Walker, Chief Executive of The Sage Group, commented;

"The acquisition of Protix brings Sage the capability to integrate secure payment systems with our business management software. With Protix in the UK and Verus in the US, we continue our strategy to expand into new adjacent markets and broaden the range of services we can offer our SME customers. "
